

Tequity Announces Acquisition of Doc.IT Inc. by Roynat Capital

MARKHAM Ontario, June 6, 2012 Software and technology company merger and acquisition firm TEQUITY, INC., today announced the acquisition of Doc-It Inc. by Roynat Capital's National Equity Group.

Doc-It, a Hamilton, Ontario based company is the premier provider of enterprise document management software to accounting firms across Canada and the United States. Doc-It's highly regarded product suite generates significant operational efficiencies, strong practice governance and outstanding client service capability for independent accountants. Roynat partnered with Brock Philp, a seasoned and successful industry executive who will become Doc-It's new Chief Executive Officer.

Roynat Capital's National Equity Group is a Canadian market leader in providing equity capital and mezzanine financing solutions to small and mid-market companies across Canada. We seek to invest up to $10 million with great entrepreneurs in market leading companies to drive growth and profitability. Our capital solutions are often utilized for succession planning, acquisitions, accelerating growth and facility capital expenditures.

About Tequity

Tequity is an M&A advisory to Software and Information Technology companies. We assist CEO's and shareholders with divestitures, acquisitions, valuations, and exit strategies, and are experienced in both domestic and cross-border transactions. Our vast network, deep understanding of the market and ability to identify and pursue the value of IP and other items that have a significant impact on valuation in knowledge-based businesses add tremendous value to our client relationships.

www.tequityinc.com

SOURCE Tequity Inc.

For further information:

CONTACT: Diane Horton, +1-416-483-9400, dhorton@tequityinc.com